UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS

JUN 13 2016

FOR THE NINTH CIRCUIT

MOLLY C. DWYER, CLERK
U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

In re:

PAUL HANSMEIER, Esq., Application for Admission to the bar of the Ninth Circuit Pending,

Respondent.

No. 13-80114

ORDER

Before: Peter L. Shaw, Appellate Commissioner.

On May 15, 2013, the court ordered respondent Paul Hansmeier's application for admission to the bar of the Ninth Circuit held in abeyance pending possible attorney discipline proceedings in other jurisdictions. Hansmeier was directed to file a status report within 60 days, and to continue submitting status reports every sixty days. The order warned that failure to file a timely status report would be construed as a withdrawal of the application for admission to the bar of the Ninth Circuit.

Hansmeier filed regular status reports for the next two years, but he has not filed one since September 22, 2015. The court is informed that the Minnesota Lawyers Professional Responsibility Board filed a formal petition for disciplinary action on October 28, 2015, and that disciplinary proceedings remain pending.

ES/AppellateCommissioner

The court construes Hansmeier's failure to file status reports apprising the court of these significant developments as a withdrawal of his application for admission to the bar of the Ninth Circuit.
